

Ramazan Büyükhelvacigil

Sales & Marketing Executive, Zade Global Inc.

Ramazan Büyükhelvacigil, born in Konya in 1993, is a 4th generation member of the Helvacizade Group that has been a family company of 130 years.

Along with Zade Vital as Helvacizade Group's endeavor in our national healthcare industry, Ramazan Büyükhelvacigil developed a passion for medical and aromatic herbs that have an economic value in the pharmaceutical and cosmetics industry, and attained his Bachelor's degree from the Department of Medical and Aromatic Plants of the Üsküdar University between 2013 and 2015. Continuing his study at Berkeley College in New York on "General Business/Business", Büyükhelvacigil specializes in the fields of marketing, business law and competitive markets that play an important role in the future of the companies.

Ramazan Büyükhelvacigil, who has been working in the field of medicinal herbs in the USA, received the "Introduction to Aromatherapy" training at the New York Institute of Aromatic Studies in 2018. Büyükhelvacigil, who focuses on the topics of essential oils supporting psychological and physical fitness, contributes to R & D studies conducted by Zade Vital in aromatherapy field.

Ramazan Büyükhelvacigil, who has been working actively in various business branches of Helvacizade Group since his early years, successfully represented Group companies in International platforms by participating in the Dubai Gulfood Fair in 2015, Tokyo Foodex Japan Food Fair and SIAL China Food Fair. Ramazan Maghelvacigil, who continues his business life within Zade Global Inc., which started operating in 2017 in Chicago, USA, currently, has the role of Zade Global Inc. Sales Marketing Specialist.

